

Please don't take away our KLOVE radio station from our local broadcast area. We are in a town of 50K and there isn't much choice for Christian music and news in our area. My family would really miss the positive and encouraging message that we receive if the station was not available to us.

Respectfully,

Susan Parrish